Seeing America

Spring 2026 Open Call Juried Exhibit

Entry Deadline: Sunday, February 22, 2026 11:59 p.m. PST

Exhibit: April 8 – May 2, 2026

OPEN CALL FOR ENTRIES

In celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the United States, the annual international juried Open Call exhibit is titled Seeing America and will be held in April 2026 during Photography Month Sacramento when the entire region celebrates photography.

Seeing America offers the opportunity for amateur and professional photographers to show their favorite visual stories captured on travels to big cities and small towns, on the ski slopes and seashores, in the corn fields and marshes of the land we call home. Every neighborhood has people with unique stories to tell, and Viewpoint wants to showcase those stories on the gallery walls. Show us the wolves of Wall Street and the rodeo cowboys, the graffiti artists and the linemen.

We are lucky to live in a land of so many facets, with as many success stories as heartaches. From string bikinis to subzero parkas, rhinestone studded ballgowns to patch covered overalls – we want this show to celebrate the diversity of America and its people over the past 250 years.

Viewpoint welcomes your concepts, creativity and craftsmanship as you connect with the theme Seeing America. We hope you accept the challenge and enter your images of America from coast to coast, border to border, all 50 states and the U.S. territories.

Seeing America is a juried Open Call exhibit inviting both members and non-members of Viewpoint Photographic Art Center to participate. The exhibit guarantees a wide audience as it coincides with Photography Month Sacramento which celebrates all things photographic throughout the region.
